STATE & ORS.

Mr. PS BHATI, for the appellant / petitioner

Mr. DS RAJVI, for the respondent

HON'BLE SHRI MUNISHWAR NATH BHANDARI,J.

ORDER

Heard learned counsel for the parties.

The grievance of thepetitioner in substance is that Teaching Learning Equipment (TLE) which are required to be purchased were directed to be purchased from the fair only where the supplies are of very indifferent quality, and are being supplied at an exhorbitant price, and therefore, the petitioners cannot be compelled to purchase the TLE from the fair only.

A reply has been submitted specifically pleading that it was never compulsory, nor the institutions were ever forced to purchase the TLE from the fair only, and they are free to purchase it from the market also.

In that view of the matter, we do not find any public interest to be involved in the matter. The petition is, therefore, dismissed.
